READINGS FROM PROVERBS

When pride comes, then comes disgrace, but with humility comes wisdom. A person is praised in accordance with his wisdom, but the one who has a twisted mind is despised. Better is a person of humble standing who nevertheless has a servant, than one who pretends to be somebody important yet has no food. The highway of the upright is to turn away from evil; the one who guards his way safeguards his life. Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall. Before destruction the heart of a person is proud, but humility comes before honor. The reward for humility and fearing the LORD is riches and honor and life. Do not honor yourself before the king, and do not stand in the place of great men; for it is better for him to say to you, "Come up here," than to put you lower before a prince, whom your eyes have seen. Do not boast about tomorrow; for you do not know what a day may bring forth. Let another praise you, and not your own mouth; someone else, and not your own lips. As the crucible is for silver and the furnace is for gold, so a person is proved by the praise he receives.

SPECIAL MUSIC..... "Mansion In The Sky" ...Bob and Kozy

* CLOSING HYMN..... "Amazing Grace" ...Led by Bob and Kozy

*Amazing grace! How sweet the sound, that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found; was blind, but now I see.*

*'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear, the hour I first believed.*

*Through many dangers, toils and snares, I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.*

SENDING FORTH

Now go in the joy and power and hope of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.
