The Character of a Methodist

THE CHARACTER OF A METHODIST A Tract by John Wesley, 1742

To the Reader.

[1] Many are at a loss in understanding what a "Methodist" is and what are the principles, practices, and distinguishing marks of this sect.

[2] At the urgings of both friends and enemies I will give the clearest account I can of this subject.

[3] Let it be noted that "Methodist" is a name of reproach given first to three or four young men at Oxford. This is not a name they took for themselves.

[4] I would be pleased if the name "Methodist" were never mentioned again; but would hope that I might be known for who I am, not what I am called.

I. WHAT A METHODIST IS NOT

[1] "The distinguishing marks of a Methodist are not his opinions of any sort." We do believe in the inspiration of the Scripture; and that this Word of God is the only and the sufficient rule of faith and practice. We believe Christ to be the Eternal Supreme God. But "as to all opinions which do not strike at the root of Christianity we 'think and let think'." So, opinions do not set apart Methodists.

[2] Neither do words or phrases of any sort. That is, we do not speak in any way other than what is normal and natural. Of course we do use Scriptural phrases and words when speaking of the things of God.

[3] Nor can we be distinguished by actions, customs or usages of a nature not mentioned in Scripture. Our clothing, covering our heads, abstaining from marriage, etc .are not a mark of Methodists.

[4] Nor do we lay the whole stress of religion on any single part of it.

Financial Update

The financials through April 30 represent 1/3 of the year. The trends are encouraging. The income from envelope collections is $4,500 more than budget. Apportionment receipts are $2,500 below budget but are expected to be made up during the balance of the year. Overall income is equal to budget and overall expenses are $2,000 less than budget. Not included in these figures are the grant from the Faith in the Future Fund ($1,042) and the net proceeds from the sandwich luncheon ($1,322) which this year will support our operating budget. This positive performance needs to be tempered a bit by the fact that a couple of members have paid significantly ahead for the year.

The Character of a Methodist

II. WHAT A METHODIST IS

[5] Who then is a Methodist? One who has the love of God in his heart, who loves God entirely. One who finds in God the joy of his heart, the desire of his soul.

[6] He is happy in God, rejoicing evermore in Jesus Christ and the redemption which is now his. And why not? He has had his sins blotted out, the Spirit bears witness with his spirit that he is a child of God.

[7] And in everything he gives thanks, having learned to be content in whatever estate he finds himself.

[8] And he "prays without ceasing". He is not always on his knees nor always in the house of prayer, but he always lifts his heart to God---and this is the essence of prayer.

[9] And the Methodist who loves God, loves his brother also. And he loves his enemies (and if it not be in his power to do good to them who hate him, yet he ceases not to pray for them---even if they use him in dastardly ways).

[10] For the Methodist is pure in heart. He has no desires for revenge, envy, malice and wrath. He is not contentious. He has no love for the things of the world. All his desire is unto God.

[11] Indeed, his one purpose in life is to do the will of God. "All that is in the soul is holiness to the Lord."

[12] He loves God so he obeys the commandments of God. Not just some, but all of them.

[13] "For his obedience is in proportion to his love, the source from whence it flows. And therefore loving God with all his heart, he serves him with all his strength, holy acceptable to God."

[14] "By consequence, whatsoever he doth, it is all to the glory of God." He not only aims at this, he attains it. This (glorifying God) is the one business of his life.

[15] The vice of the world cannot tempt him to stumble. He thinks and speaks of those things which are pure, lovely, and of good report.

[16] "Lastly, as he has time, he 'does good unto all men'---unto neighbors and strangers, friends and enemies." Not only by "feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting those that are sick or in prison, but much more does he labor to do good to their souls as of the ability which God gives; to awaken those that sleep in death ... so they may 'all come unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ'."

[17] "These are the principles and practices of our sect; these are the marks of a true Methodist." Yes, they can be said to be only the common fundamentals of Christianity. I wish that everyone understood this. The Methodist "is a Christian, not in name only, but in heart and in life." "And 'having the mind that was in Christ' he so walks as Christ also walked."

[18] These are the marks which we labor to distinguish ourselves from the unbelieving world; but from real Christians of whatever denomination, we seek not to be distinguished at all. Whoever does the will of our Father in heaven is the same as my brother and sister and mother. For opinions or understanding of terms, let us not destroy the work of God. Do you love and serve God? It is enough. I give you the right hand of fellowship.

This is not a tract written to men and women who hoped to live life in this manner, they actually lived like this loving God and neighbor. The Methodist "is a Christian, not in name only, but in heart and in life." We seek ways to grow our church and denomination, perhaps it is not to find a new idea, but to go back to who we once were.

Pastor Victor
