The Source of our Resources

Paul writes this to the church at Philippi from a jail cell in Rome. He had no personal income, no savings account, no IRA, no Social Security. His needs were met by the generosity of the churches he served or he went without. He describes his prison time in 4:12: I have experienced times of need and times of abundance.

Paul describes the ebb and flow of the events of his life. He speaks of times of need where his resources were scarce, and times of abundance where he had his needs met and more than he needed. There are times in our lives and the life of our church when we have seen our needs as greater than our resources. We also remember those other times when we have enough for ourselves and more, when we experience a time of plenty in our lives, a time when life is going well. Acts of generosity abound, but how can you be generous in the lean times? Paul gives us two simple principles to follow that will encourage our hearts to be generous at all times.

He says he has learned contentment. First, he has learned to be thankful towards God in all of life circumstances. Second, he has learned not to envy those who have more than he does. 4:12b: In any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of contentment, whether I go satisfied or hungry, have plenty or nothing.

His secret is his confidence in Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit, so that by faith he can say, 4:13: I am able to do all things through the one who strengthens me. He can do all things God requires of him, because God strengthens him. Whatever God calls him to do he can do it because God has an infinite supply of resources. 4:19: And my God will supply your every need according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus. God supplies all of our needs, not out of His resources—a finite supply—but according to His riches in Christ Jesus an infinite supply. He acts on our behalf for His glory. 4:20: May glory be given to God our Father forever and ever. Amen.

So what are you lacking or in need of that you don't have the resources to meet?

What is He calling you to do and you aren't responding because you just don't see how you can possibly accomplish the task?

Stewardship 2012

Faith Messenger

God is calling our church to do things that seem beyond our resources. Are you and I willing to live as Paul did—putting your needs and the needs of our church in the hands of God with the confidence that we can do... all things through the one who strengthens each of us. Are we willing to move forward trusting God as the one who .. will supply your every need according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

There are challenges ahead for each of us and for our congregation. There is work to be done. There are prayers to be prayed. But in and through it all there is our God who supplies all our needs. Let us join together and trust him for the great things He has for us in the days and months and years to come.

NURSES NOTES— We Are Our Brother’s Keeper

Yes, we are our brother’s keeper, and our sister’s, parent’s, friend’s, and other loved one’s. Did you know that 92% of elder care is done by family members? The number of

“Bear one another’s burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ”

people is on the rise, as the baby boomers age and as people live longer. We need to be prepared to face this challenge. On Oct. 15 and 16, I attended a training, “Powerful Tools for Caregivers,” presented by the Minnesota Agency on Aging. It is part of their initiative to allow elders to stay at home. It is an excellent science-based, scripted program that can be led by non-professionals. Its objective is to “care for the caregiver” by giving them tools to meet their own personal needs. Too often, the caregiver neglects their own physical, mental and spiritual health in favor of the care of the recipient. It’s not terribly unusual for the caregiver to die first.

Our church family has decided to participate in this program, by providing the “Powerful Tools to Caregivers” for our own church

“For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.”

~~ Matthew 12:50

members, but also anyone in the community who would like to come.

The series is 6-weeks long and the sessions are 90 minutes. I will lead the first group with Elaine Spain, from the Region 9 Area Agency on Aging. The dates have not been set ... yet. We hope that other churches will encourage their caregivers to come.

You can help by referring someone who is a caregiver. Encourage caregivers to come, especially men who tend to be more reluctant. Consider being a leader yourself.

The other piece is, we will need people to stay with the care recipient while the caregiver is attending. If you would be interested in staying with a care recipient for a few hours during this time, or in general, so the caregiver gets a break, or Respite Care, let me know! You can call me at 835-4304, or leave me a note in the church office. Please contact me with questions or concerns.

“For I was hungry and you gave me food. I was thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me.”

~~Matthew 25:35

On a personal note, my father took care of my mom for over 20-years, and continued while she was in the nursing home. I so wish he could have attended a program like this! He died 4 months after mom, he had no reserves left to take on the cancer he had.

Let’s make a difference by supporting caregivers!

Peace & Grace, Sherry Scholljegerdes

Regarding Elections:

“I met those of our society who have votes in the ensuing election, and advised them, 1) To vote, without fee or reward, for the person they judged most worthy; 2) To speak no evil of the person they voted against; And 3) To take care their spirits were not sharpened against those that voted on the other side.”

FAITH ON THE HOUSEWALK!

Faith United Methodist Church has accepted an invitation to have our church as a part of the Waseca Arts Council's Christmas Housewalk, to be held December 1 & 2. It is exciting to have a "House of Worship" as part of this event. We will welcome visitors from Waseca, as well as many other communities extending from southern Minnesota all the way to the Twin Cities!

A committee is forming and would welcome anyone who is interested in working on this event. We would like to see church-wide participation and need help from men, youth and women! A very special highlight will be the display, in our sanctuary, of Nativity sets belonging to our members. If you would be willing to share your Nativity set(s) (you may have them back after Dec. 2, if you wish), or to serve on the committee, or to be present at the church during the open hours, please call Linda Lohse at 835-1917, or e-mail her at

TRUNK-OR-TREAT is coming up quick on Wednesday, Oct. 31. Please consider donating candy, or cash to help pay for candy purchases. We usually have about 500 kids and a ton of fun! Join us—wear a costume (or not) and share the fun! We are also asking for canned food donations for our local Food Shelf.

UMW NOV. 2012—Berts' UPDATES

Guest Night

The Flemming Fold, a musical family, performed at the United Methodist Women Guest Night on October 18th. There were very many positive comments on how much people enjoyed the group. There were close to 100 present for the performance and the women served around 90 people in the fellowship hall.

It was great to see the young people in attendance. It appeared they too were amazed at the performance of the two young girls and their talent in singing and playing the instruments. The decorations in the fellowship hall had a touch of elegance and the cake was very tasty. Thanks to everyone that helped out with the event. It all adds to a very successful Guest Night.

UMW Unit Meeting

Don't forget to mark your calendars for this meeting. It is scheduled for November 19 at 6:00 p.m. Our devotional program will be our World Thank offering. This is an opportunity for us to respond to God's abundance of grace with spontaneous gifts of gratitude. The funds collected are used in the total program of mission carried on through the Women's Division-mission in the United States and around the world.

We will be planning our program schedule for 2013 and have election of officers for 2013.

MN/UMW Annual Conference

We met in Blue Earth at the Hope United Methodist Church on October 6th. Shirley Burdick, Char Frankenberry, Barb Friedl, Sherry Scholljegerdes, Mary Jane Stauffer, Gloria Tollefson, Lorraine Wick and Roberta Walker attended the gathering. It was great having such a good representation from Faith United Methodist Women. It will be reported on at the UMW unit meeting.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the Hands on Mission Project. We took a large box of school supplies and it was very much appreciated.

There is a signup sheet at church for the things needed for the luncheon and for the workers that are still needed. Thanks to everyone for helping out with the bazaar. The luncheon, gifts, baked items, canned food and the items people give for the silent auction make it a great bazaar.

Supper at Grace Garage

This program is sponsored by the Neighborhood Service Center. Our church has been asked to help with providing the supper for November 29 and December 20.

There will be more information about this as we get closer to the dates.

DEVOTIONAL MAGAZINES

The Education Team was presented with a difficult choice recently. We were asked to review the costs associated with mailing out of devotional magazines for all our young people. We love our young people and of course we want to encourage them in their faith walk with Jesus! As we looked at the costs however, we decided to discontinue the mailings in order to save over $1,200 annually.

We are hoping that by receiving these magazines, many young folks have used them and gotten into the good habit of daily devotional time with the Lord! Please encourage a young person you know to keep it up! Ask them what they have been reading about lately. If you would like to personally purchase the same devotional magazine for your young person, the details are:

Pockets (elementary)	pockets.upperroom.org	11 issues	$21.95
Devo (jr & sr high)	devozine.org	12 issues	$41.95
Alive Now (young adult)	alivenow.upperroom.org	6 issues	$17.95

Another option is to purchase a devotional book. Often these books cost less than $10. They are available at all Christian bookstores as well as online retailers such as Christian Book Distributors at christianbook.com. Thanks so much for your understanding.

PLEASE PRAY...

Dear Lord,

We pray for the leaders of this country and every other.

May they not be swayed by politics but listen instead to the spirit of truth.

May they not harken to the false and bitter voices of a frightened world, but instead hear the angels who minister unto them.

May the world make room for their leadership and resist no more their growth into greatness.

May their virtue shield them.

May their lack of virtue be forgiven and corrected.

May their words be true

May their strength go before them, to cut like a sword through all illusion.

May they see the innocence and brotherhood in those who oppose them.

May they grow beyond a shallow fight.

And thus may we all be taken with them into new light, new peace, new politics, new hope for all the world.

Amen.
